Here are some of the topics you should be ready to talk about. Circle two (2) of them you like and write brief responses below. I will choose others to discuss orally.

1. Read your favorite passage aloud and tell me why it was your favorite.
2. What other books or stories does this one remind you of? Why?
3. If this book were made into a movie...
 - a. ...who would be the star? Why?
 - b. ...what rating (G, PG, PG-13, R) would it receive? Why?
 - c. ...who would perform the songs for the soundtrack? Why?
4. Identify a theme and explain how it is developed in the book.
5. List five questions you would like me to ask you about this book.
6. Identify something about the book you did not understand.
7. Describe a character in the book that reminds you of someone you know.
8. To whom would you recommend this book? Why?
9. Should this book be taught in class as a "classroom novel" that all the students read? Why or why not?
