

Name _____

Period _____

Identifying and Analyzing Literary Elements

Title: _____ Author: _____

What is the point of view of the narrator? _____

Describe the setting: _____

Name the protagonist(s): _____

Briefly explain the main conflict in the story: _____

Cite an example (and page number) of each of these external conflicts.

character vs. character: _____

character vs. group: _____

character vs. natural force/nonhuman: _____

Cite an example (and page number) of an internal conflict

character vs. self: _____

What is the exposition in this story? _____

Explain the complication: _____

What is the climax of the story? _____

Explain the resolution: _____

Identify two examples (and page numbers) of flashback and/or flash-forward in the story:

Cite an example (and page number) of foreshadowing in the story: _____

Quote a passage (and page number) that illustrates tone: _____

Quote a passage (and page number) that illustrates the mood of the story: _____

Identify and explain the methods of characterization that were used most often: _____

Cite an example (and page number) for at least two of the types of irony:

Verbal Irony: _____

Situational Irony: _____

Dramatic Irony: _____

Identify a motif that recurred in the story: _____

Identify a symbol from the story and explain what it represents: _____

State a theme of the story: _____

Use examples from the story to explain how the story develops that theme: _____
